

SNOWCARE FOR TROOPS AWARENESS WEEK

NOVEMBER 13-19, 2016

80% of all the freshwater on earth is frozen as ice or snow, accounting for 12% of the earth's surface.

The top three states for SnowCare for Troops volunteers are Michigan, Wisconsin and New York.

The number of military families and disabled veterans that have received complimentary snow removal since the program's inception.

The Top 5 snowiest cities in the contiguous United States with populations above 50,000 include:

- Syracuse, NY (110 inches)
- Erie, PA (89 inches)
- Rochester, NY (87 inches)
- Buffalo, NY (82 inches)
- Flagstaff, AZ (81 inches)

Ft. Drum, N.Y. and Groton, Connecticut are the two locations annually having the most requests for snow and ice removal services

Warning or Watch?

A Winter Storm Watch is issued to alert the public to the possibility of a blizzard, heavy snow, heavy freezing rain, or heavy sleet and a Winter Storm Warning is issued when a hazardous winter weather event is imminent or occurring, and is considered a threat to life and property.

SnowCare for Troops Is Supported By

