

SNOWCARE FOR TROOPS

FAST FACTS

Many SnowCare for Troops volunteers are veterans themselves.

The top three states for SnowCare for Troops volunteers are Ohio, Michigan and New York.

1,500 – The number of volunteer contractors who have registered for the SnowCare for Troops program since its inception in 2010.

5,000

The number of military families who have registered to receive complimentary snow and ice removal services since the program's inception.

The Top 5 snowiest cities in the contiguous United States with populations above 50,000 include:

Syracuse, NY (110 inches)

Erie, PA (89 inches)

Rochester, NY (87 inches)

Buffalo, NY (82 inches)

Flagstaff, AZ (81 inches)

Ft. Drum, N.Y. and Groton, CT are the two locations annually having the most requests for snow and ice removal services

Colorado Springs, CO and Anchorage, AK are top locations in need of NEW volunteers

Register to help 1 Family Today

It's easy. Go to www.projectevergreen.org to register. Select how many families you're willing to help, the distance you're willing to travel and the services you can provide. Get started with 1 family to see how it works.

SnowCare for Troops Is Supported By

Register today to be a volunteer at www.ProjectEverGreen.org - You'll be glad you did.

Sources: Project EverGreen, National Snow & Ice Data Center

